

Texas Holdem Strip Poker Game Released

Monday, 11 August 2008

Strip Poker Mens Club today released an adult version of the game Texas Holdem. The game rules are exactly the same as the original game with the difference that the game is played with your choice of one of nine lovely hostesses whom you can strip by buying their clothes after a winning hand and after you have amounted sufficient credit to do so.

The Texas Holdem Strip Poker game is already receiving lots of interest amongst players and a downloadable and installable version will be made available soon.

The game which is a hybrid version of the game developed by yourownstrippoker.com; is being released due to a high number of customer requests for this very popular game. For those unaware of how to play Texas Holdem Poker there is onsite online help which will have you understanding the rules of play very quickly.

The release of the Texas Holdem game comes as a prelude to the much awaited Live Strip Poker Five Card Draw game which is still in development by Strip Poker Mens Club but expected to be released within the next 7 &ndash; 10 days. The Live Strip Poker game is powered by Adobe Flex technology, with extremely fast game play and with the added bonus of live video streaming and chat. The Five Card Draw game will be available to customers in two offerings, free multi-player private strip poker and pay-per-view strip poker and both require user registration to commence play.
